Re: Neil Family, Court File # [REDACTED]

Your Honour:

As you will recall, in March of 2013 the above noted matter was referred to the Family Court Clinic for a Section 54 Assessment. Today Ms. Neil presented in person indicating that she insists on being assessed by a First Nation person. As the Clinic is not able to accommodate her request, Dr. Rowe wishes to inform you that the Clinic is unable to proceed and will consider the matter closed unless Your Honour advises otherwise.

Yours truly

CAS Court File No. [REDACTED]

This is exhibit "E" to the Affidavit

Leanne Lou Cowdy, a Commissioner, etc.,

Expires March 17, 2014.

I am in receipt of the letter from your clinic dated October 17, 2013, regarding the above noted matter and respond as follows.

As counsel for the child, [REDACTED] ([REDACTED]), it would be my position that a Family Court Clinic Assessment is no longer required for this particular family. I understand that the CAS is considering including in their next Status Review Application an Order which the parties may consent to, rescinding the Order which requires a Family Court Clinic Assessment.

Thank you.

Yours very truly,

VINCENT A. RAMSAY

Dear Dr. Rowe:

Re: Neil- Court File # [REDACTED]

Further to your letter of October 17, 2013, please be advised that notwithstanding the court order to the contrary, the parties are in agreement that a Family Court Clinic Assessment is no longer required.

It is hoped that at the Status Review that the court will grant an order rescinding the Family Court Clinic assessment.

Thank you for keeping us apprised of the situation.

Yours truly,
