

Give Foster Kids A Voice

The Ministry of Children and Youth Services wouldn't let the Ontario Ombudsman monitor our publicly funded Children's Aid Societies so why not enable kids in care do it themselves?

HELP GIVE FOSTER KIDS A VOICE

If you agree that kids in foster care...

- should be allowed to ACTIVELY PARTICIPATE in MONITORING their Children's Aid Society
- should be allowed to PARTICIPATE in SETTING THE DIRECTION of their Children's Aid Society
- should be allowed to vote for whom they want to represent the views of the community on their Children's Aid Society's Board of Directors

...then please, take a moment to visit our web site and learn how you can get involved!

www.afterfostercare.ca

contact@afterfostercare.ca

The Board of Directors' of both the Children's Aid Society of Ottawa and the Catholic Children's Aid Society of Toronto have hired lawyers using public funds to fight two former foster children in their efforts to ensure that foster kids are given the legal opportunity to become members of their respective Societies through a simple amendment to their governing corporate documents known as their By-Laws.

John Dunn, and Gary

Curtis, both former Crown Wards who lived in foster care their entire childhoods are pleading with you to get involved.

The Foster Care Council of Canada